NUMB. 109

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3. 1735.

N^o 109.

A French Mail arrived Yesterday, with these Advices.

Rome, Octob. 12.

Coscia, the Bishop of Tar-ga, has, at length, been let out of the Castle of St. Angelo, by virtue of the Decree of the Congregation Super Nonnullis, and is gone to shut himself up in the Convent of St. Francis de Paulo.
When his Brother the Cardinal Coscia set out, he received Orders from the Pope to make his personal Appearance here, immediately after his having made use of the Bath at Corfini, on Pain of being deprived of his Cardinal's Cap, and all his Benefices.

A Marriage is talk'd of here between the Duke of Savoy and the Daughter of the Constable Colonna.
They write from Naples, that the Prince de la Torre, who is appointed to go Ambassador to France, on his Departure for Paris, and that he has hir'd a Dutch Vessel to carry himself and his Equipage to Amsterdam.

From the Camp under the Cannon of Trier, Octob. 29.
Count Seckendorf has made a Motion so as to advance within half a Day's March of our Army, and 'tis not doubted, but his Design is to venture a Battle forthwith: Mean time his Troops are ready to perish with the Cold, and for want of Subsistence, which they are oblig'd to send for at a great Distance. One of our Parties has brought to the Camp several of the Enemy's Carts with 75 wounded Men in them, whom they were carrying to Coblenz to be cur'd.

Paris, Nov. 5. The 25th ult. M. Vanhoe, Ambassador from the States General at this Court, had the Honour to sup with the King at Fontainebleau.

The King has granted a Pension of 12,000 Livres to the Lady of the Marfhal de Boufflers on her resigning her Employment as Lady of Honour to the Queen, which has been given to the Dutchess of Luynes, who on the 30th ult. took the Oath thereupon to her said Majesty.

His Majesty has also given Leave to the Duke de Charroist to dispose of the Regiment of the Crown, vacant by the Death of the Marquis de Charroist his eldest Son, in favour of either of his two surviving Sons.

The Duke d'Harcourt, Lieutenant General in the Army of Italy, having obtain'd Leave from the King to come hither for a while, in order to settle some Affairs, is expected here every Day.

The Chevalier de Rejay, heretofore Resident at the Court of Bavaria, and the Chevalier de Noyon, died recently.

There has been a Report here for a Week past, that the Preliminaries for a Treaty of Peace were sign'd on the 12th ult. but tho' the Foreign News Papers seem to confirm it, we can't depend on the Truth of it.
Mean time the India Company's Actions are risen to 1700.

Several Ecclesiasticks, both of this City and the Diocese of Auxerre, have been lately apprehended and shut up in Prison on account of Matters relating to the Contagion.

L O N D O N.

St. James's, Octob. 31. This Day the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen waited on his Majesty. to congratulate him on his safe Arrival; they were introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household; and Mr. Baron Thomson, Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Speech.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London most humbly entreat your Majesty's Permission to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in Great Britain.

These, and all your Majesty's Subjects, have Reason to rejoice for the Return and Welfare of a most gracious Prince, who protects them in the full Enjoyment of all their Rights and Liberties, whose Life is employed in promoting their Happiness, and who is, in Reality, the Father of his People.

When they reflect on your Majesty's assiduous Cares, and earnest Endeavours, for averting the Calamities of War, and for quieting the disturbed Scene of Affairs Abroad: When they consider, that whilst these Misfortunes have attended other Nations, your Majesty's Subjects have enjoyed with Freedom their Trade and Commerce, and all the Advantages of Peace: it gives them a just Sense of your Majesty's Wisdom and Conduct, and they have a firm Reliance on your Majesty's future Care and Vigilance, that you will do every thing requisite on your Part for securing these Blessings to your own People, and for restoring the Tranquility of Europe.

These your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to assure your Majesty of their inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person, of the most zealous Endeavours in their Sphere for the Support of your Majesty's Government, that your Reign may be easy and happy, whilst your Majesty is making their Welfare and the Good of Mankind the Means of establishing your own Honour and Glory.

To which his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for the Duty and Loyalty which you have ex-press'd to me upon this Occasion, and you may always depend upon my utmost Endeavours to advance and promote the Wealth, Trade, and Prosperity of this great and flourishing City.

They all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand; and his Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on John Salter, Esq; Alderman, and Robert Godschall, Esq; Alderman and one of the Sheriffs.

They were afterwards introduced to her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Robert Mountague, Vice Chamberlain to her Majesty; and Mr. Baron Thomson made their Compliments to her Majesty as followeth.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the safe Arrival of the King our most gracious Sovereign.

Your Majesty's most tender Concern for the Happiness of all his Majesty's People has been apparent on many Occasions, more especially by your Majesty's mild and prudent Administration of Affairs during his Majesty's Absence.

As these his Majesty's most faithful Subjects are truly sensible of the many happy Effects of your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness; as they cannot but observe with the highest Satisfaction, so great, so illustrious an Example for encouraging Religion and Virtue, and for promoting every thing that is good and commendable; it creates in them a Veneration for your Royal Person, a dutiful and grateful Sense of all your Majesty's indulgent Cares for their Welfare. And they beg Leave to tender their most humble Acknowledgements; their sincere and most hearty Wishes for your Majesty's Health and long Life; and to assure your Majesty, that they shall always think themselves under the highest Obligations to do the utmost in their Power for promoting the Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty and all your Royal Family.

To which her Majesty was pleased to return a most gracious Answer; and they all had the Honour to kiss her Majesty's Hand.

Yesterday their Majesties, his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and the two Eldest Princesses, went with the usual State to the Royal Chapel at St. James's, and heard a Sermon preach'd by the Rev. Dr. Egerton, and the Right Honourable the Lord Onslow carried the Sword of State to and from Chapel.

The same Day the Reverend Dr. Bundy preached before his Highness the Duke and the two youngest Princesses, in his Highness's Apartment.

The same Day their Majesties, the Prince, and the Princesses Amelia and Caroline, dined in Publick in the great State Ball Room.

Last Saturday James Ruffet, Peter Chamberlain, and George Board, were apprehended on Suspicion of being concerned with the late Mr. M'Cray, lately Executed, in robbing Dr. Lancaster on the Highway, and being carried before Justice Deveil were, after a very long Examination, committed to the Gatehouse, Westminster, and To-morrow they are to be re-examin'd.

This Day at Noon the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Lord President, the Lord Privy Seal, Chancellor of the Duchy Court, the Speaker of the Honourable House of Commons, and several others of the Lords of his Majesty's Privy Council, and Judges, will meet at the Exchequer Chamber at Westminster, and prick down three Gentlemen in each County, for his Majesty's Nomination to serve as Sheriffs for the Year ensuing.

Last Thursday the Rev. Mr. Henry Edwards, M. A. was inducted into the Living of Colnbrook, in the County of Bucks, worth about 300l. per Annum, void by the Death of the last Incumbent, to which he was lately presented by his Brother, George Edwards, Esq;

Last Saturday Letters Patent passed the Great Seal, containing a Grant to John Fanshawe, D. D. of the Office of Greek Professor in the University of Oxford, void by the Death of Dr. Thomas Terry.

Last Saturday the new String of Dun Hories, lately brought from Hanover, were shew'd to their Majesties and the rest of the Royal Family, in the Great Court Yard, St. James's, when his Majesty was pleased to present eight of them to her Majesty, for a Set of Coach Horses.

Mr. Croisgrove, the Printer of the Norwich Mercury, having lately exulted on the Election of Mr. Heathcote to a Seat in the Court of Aldermen of the City of London, and claimed as an Honour to a sinking Party, a Gentleman who was unanimously chosen by the whole Ward for the Sake of his brave Uncle, as well as his own Merit, that Printer is now desir'd to let his Readers know that the said Gentleman has not shewn a greater Zeal in any one Instance for the Liberties of the Subject, than he did last Week at the Election of another worthy Alderman of this City, in opposition to a Candidate supported by the Tory Interest: Therefore, unless the said Croisgrove has an Antipathy to the remarkable Number by which the Election was carried, a Number which the Whigs hold in some Veneration, when they reflect on the great Deliverances this Nation received in the Years 1588 and 1688, it is expected that he will do no less Justice to Mr. Heathcote's Friend, than to himself, by publishing, in Capital Letters, that Last Week Mr. LEQUESNE, Deputy of the Ward of Broadstreet in the City of London, was elected ALDERMAN of the said Ward, against Sir William Chapman, Bart. by a Majority of LXXXVIII.

At the Sessions last Week at Hicks's Hall, the Woman who was lately detected offering to Sale some Pieces of the curious Sun-Dial Plates that were stolen from the Gardens of Gray's-Inn and Lincoln's-Inn, was examined by the Bench of Justices, and refusing to discover how she came by the Ruins of those Dials, she was by the Court sentenced to hard Labour for Twelve Months in Bridewell.

The Right Rev. Father in God the Lord Bishop of Soder and Man is dangerously ill at his Palace in the Isle of Man, his Lordship having had a very tedious and dangerous Passage from England.

On Friday last a Cart ran over a Man on Snow-hill, by which his Arms were broke, and he was immediately sent to St. Bartholomew's Hospital.

THE RAKE OF TASTE. A POEM.

Dedicated to ALEXANDER POPE, Esq.
Thou art an Eye into the Gay World, what see we, for the most Part, but a Set of querulous, emaciated, fluttering, phantastical Bings, worn out in the keen Pursuit of Pleasure; Creatures that know, own, condemn, deplore, yet still pursue their own Infelicity! The decay'd Monuments of Error! the thin Remains of what is called Delight.

Dr. Youse's true Estimate of Human Life.
DUBLIN, Printed: LONDON, re-printed, and sold by Mrs. Dodd without Temple-bar; Mrs. Nutt and Mrs. Cook under the Royal Exchange, and Mr. Jolly in St. James's Street. Of whom may be had, just publish'd, by the same Author, to which is prefix'd a suitable Frontispiece, Advertisement concerning this Book.

This Masterpiece of religious Policy was published, many Years since, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookseller at Amsterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jesuits, being informed that he had purchased this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then sent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amsterdam, hearing it said, soon after, to a Catholic Bookseller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jesuits, replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he should not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform himself what it was. Being told by the Bookseller, that it was The Secret Instructions of the Society, the good Father, shrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, said, that he saw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it more advisable to purchase the whole Edition, which they soon after did, some few Copies excepted; from one of these it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there said to be taken from two Roman Catholics, Men of Credit.
